The Quadrant Puzzles Jul 26 2019 This piece of fiction may at first disturb those singularly pursuing "success" for it lays bare their identities and the nature of their personal relationships. However, by the end of the book there would clearly appear comfort and redemption. A novel that defies genres, it is about how unabashed opportunity creations lead to Orwellian outcomes. This is a must read for a beleaguered market civilization. This book has its share of heroes and villains. But in the end there is a universal triumph for every human being. A novel of immense reconciliation. It has the power to heal the earth and the human heart. Here is a bold attempt to synthesize philosophy and everyday living, the east and the west, reason and harmony, and finally, truth and beauty. A few excerpts from the book: "My heart raced as she sat beside me Her soft reassuring ancient hands Picked me up, cradled me in her lap, Pressed me to her breast And kissed me on the forehead. She then bent down to my ear And spoke the kind motherly words." "Grossness was my creed Sensory entitlement my greed What heavenly intervention Would refine me human?" "I sat beside his imposing presence Hope blossomed in my heart. His message, direct and unmistakable Gave me a new vision."
